

Welcome to the Playhouse!

When we opened the playhouse in 2013 the term “fAMPily” was coined and has proven to be an apt description of our theatre family. From its humble origins as the Midtown Bar, AMP has grown into a thriving theatre community. We have produced musicals, revues, and plays including hundreds of actors, crew, and musicians. Our audience members complete the circle and enable us to continue to grow. AMP is a 501(c)3 non-profit and we are very grateful to our sponsors and donors - last year you helped put a new roof on our building!

Recently the Jacksonville Symphony purchased new seating for their symphony hall and generously donated their discarded seats to AMP! With the help of a dozen volunteers we are currently replacing our original seats and painting the lobby and house to match!

Special thanks to theatre "moms" who helped with "Orphan wrangling," and all who contributed their time and talent, especially Lynn Arizzi and her fabulous pit! Annie is AMP's 99th musical!

Notes from the Director:

Annie has been dear to me ever since playing "Grace" with my daughter as "Molly" in Key West in the 1990's! This show has wonderful music brought to life by an outstanding pit. Our entire production crew has worked hard to create a beautiful and fun show with costumes, sets, music & dance for this iconic musical. We are so fortunate to have many AMP seasoned performers as well as a number of actors new to the stage! We think it is a suitable finale for our 13th season. We hope you enjoy it!
