Welcome to the Season of Faith!

When I put together a season at Limelight, I start with a long list of plays that capture my imagination — stories I believe would resonate with our community. Over weeks of reflection, I try to find just the right formula: a season that excites, challenges, and uplifts our audiences. This year, I found myself asking: What does the world need more of right now? The answer that kept rising to the surface was faith.

As a storyteller, I believe every story must carry elements of hope. They should challenge or affirm our deepest values and leave us with something to hold onto. But when I explored the idea of “faith,” I realized that while faith and hope are closely connected, they live in different spaces of belief and expectation.

- Hope is the anticipation of what lies ahead — the desire for something good to come.
 - Faith is rooted in the present — the conviction that something is true and reliable now.
- Faith is what makes hope possible.

Faith can be placed in humanity, in love, in God, or simply in the greater good. It gives us assurance, conviction, and the courage to wrestle with challenging moral questions. Hope says, “I look forward to it happening,” faith says, “I believe it is true now.” And don’t we need something now? We need faith.

In theatre, it takes faith in trusting the script before the curtain ever rises — believing the story will unfold, even when the ending is unseen. Hope is the anticipation in the wings, imagining the applause and the shared moment with the audience when the final scene lands. Faith keeps us rehearsing. Hope keeps us dreaming of opening night. And here we are...manifesting through “faith” what was unseen in the beginning. Thank you for sharing in this season of “faith” at the Limelight — and thank you for having faith in the arts.

From the Executive Director

Welcome to Limelight Theatre and thank you for joining us for our production of Nunsense! Some musicals lift our spirits, some make us think, and some simply make us laugh. Nunsense manages to do all three. It is a joyful reminder that humor, music, and community can bring us together in the most unexpected ways. What I also love about Nunsense is that, in many ways, it is a metaphor for theatre itself. At its heart, the show is about a group of people who step outside their comfort zones to do something they believe in: putting on a show. Isn't that exactly what theatre is? A community of people gathering courage, pooling talents, and creating something greater than themselves for others to experience and enjoy.

In a season centered on faith, Nunsense reminds us that laughter can be an act of faith — trusting that joy is still possible, even in unusual circumstances. These silly nuns have faith in all kinds of ways and show us a few dance moves in the process.

Producing a show like this is no small feat, and it happens only because of the dedication of our talented cast, crew, volunteers, and staff. I am deeply grateful to them, and to you — our audience — for bringing this story to life with your presence tonight. So let your spirit be light, and enjoy the holy hilarity of Nunsense!

Gratefully,
Sherrie Provence

Cast

Kaylee Byers

Kaylee Byers (Sister Mary Amnesia) is excited to perform in Nunsense at the Limelight Theatre. She most recently played Jo March in Little Women and Ariel Moore in Footloose at Orange Park Community Theatre. Her favorite roles at Spotlight have included Sister Mary Robert in Sister Act, Inga in Young Frankenstein, Daphne in Holiday Inn, Gertrude McFuzz in Seussical, and the title role in Oh, Tannenbaum with Clamour Theatre. She has also performed in several original 10-minute plays at Clamour Theatre's festivals and workshops.

Kaylee began her training at Dance4Life, studying ballet and jazz under Javier Fernandez and tap with Sean Mansfield. She currently hones her acting craft with coach Elaine Smith, whose guidance has shaped her growth as a performer. Kaylee brings energy, heart, and commitment to every role and values the opportunity to tell meaningful, character-driven stories onstage. She is passionate about continuing to grow in her craft and connecting with audiences through performance. She sends heartfelt thanks to her parents for always pushing her to do what she loves, and to Elaine Smith for her continued mentorship and encouragement.

Grace Lewis

Grace (Sister Mary Hubert) is very excited to be returning to the Limelight Theatre for Nunsense! She recently graduated from Flagler College with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Theatre Arts with a Music minor. Grace has recently been seen in Little Women (Marmee), The Laramie Project (Det. Debree & Others), and Measure for Measure (Provost). She'd like to thank her friends and family for their incredible support!

Facia Lee

Born and raised in Palatka, FL, Facia (Sister Robert Ann) has been performing since she was about seven years old. She graduated from Palm Beach Atlantic University with a Bachelor's of Arts in theatre and a concentration in music. Facia is a performer who teaches, loves to travel, and enjoys meeting new people. Her favorite credits include Ti Moune in Once on This Island, Lutibelle Gussie Mae Jenkins in Purlie Victorious, and Opal in Fat Ham. She would like to thank all of her friends and family for their support.

Cast

JoAnn Nance

JoAnn (Reverend Mother) is excited to return to Limelight Theatre as Sister Mary Regina. Recent roles include Nana in Tuck Everlasting and Gov't Clerk/ensemble in Bright Star. After 20 years as Theatre Director at St. Johns County School for the Arts at Murray Middle School, she is enjoying retirement and more time on stage. She thanks her husband, Andy Nance, for his support and David Buchman, Daniel Starling, and Heather Starling (her Nunsense directors) for the opportunity. To the Sisters who taught JoAnn at Regina Coeli Catholic School— can you believe she's finally wearing the Habit?

Charity Walton

Charity Walton (Sister Mary Leo) is thrilled to be back at the Limelight! This May she graduated from Flagler College with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Theatre Arts with a Music Minor. Last summer Charity toured with Missoula Children's Theatre sharing the story of Sleeping Beauty: The Musical across the east coast, and spent this summer in Knoxville, TN, in Freaky Friday The Musical (Ellie Blake). Other recent credits include Little Women (Meg March), Noises Off (Brooke Ashton), If/Then (Kate) and Disenchanted (Sleeping Beauty). Charity would like to thank all her friends and family for their continuous support, and a special thank you to her amazing husband, Zach, for being her #1 fan! @charityjwalton

The Zoo for You!

Crew

Janice Bickel

Janice Bickel (Seamstress) is very excited to help bring this show to life through her costumes. A self-taught seamstress, Janice has costumed many shows for SJCCA at Saint Augustine High School, as well as the SAHS Dance Team and Dance Program. She has also costumed for Bright Star, Fly By Night, as well as assisted with costumes for Rhinoceros, Big Fish, and Hairspray (all at the Limelight Theatre). She is an avid volunteer for her community and enjoys other amazing hobbies such as floral arranging, attending local concerts and supporting the live arts in any way she can. Janice would like to thank Jenn Michael for trusting her creative abilities, as well as her friends and family for all the love and support they provide!

Lois Dent

Lois retired after 26 years as a teacher with the Department of Defense teaching the children of our military in Japan, Italy, and Germany. She is an active volunteer with Limelight Theatre as an usher, off stage with props, costumes, and onstage. Lois also volunteers at the main library, St. Vincent de Paul Society thrift shop and UF Flagler Hospital. She is a graduate of the University of Georgia and plays golf except when the Dawgs are on the field or court!

Ella Finley

Ella is a Percussion major at Douglas Anderson, and is excited to be off the stage and in the pit once again! You may have seen her playing drums for Tuck Everlasting here at The Limelight Theatre, or in the pit orchestra of Oklahoma at Artist Connection Theatre. She wants to thank you all for coming to support, and hopes you enjoy the show!

Natasha Hartstone

Natasha is so excited to be back working with the Limelight Theatre! Previously working as an Assistant Stage Manager on Fly By Night, they are grateful to be able to be working as the light board operator for Nunsense! They would like to thank their parents Steve and Carrie Hartshorne as well as Abigail Levriani for believing in them! They hope you enjoy the show!

JoAnne (Jojo) Maffia

JoAnne (Jojo) Maffia is an award-winning interdisciplinary artist, educator and activist who actively pursues dual careers as a percussionist/composer and as the Director of Case Management at Flagler College. Jojo has been recognized as a Champion for LGBTQIA support and advocacy, as well as a Visiting Professor at Florida State University's Dance Department and was the recipient of the Art Ventures Grant in 2020 via The Community Foundation for NE Florida and produced a full-length documentary film, The making of Hammer & Rain: reflections through time. Jojo's work has been presented throughout the US, Canada, and Europe. She holds degrees in music composition, music education, dramatic literature and academic advising. Crew

Angela Muller

Angela Muller is professor of flute at FL State College of Jacksonville, owner of Muller Flute Studio (Jacksonville, FL), and a Pettry Piccolo Teaching Artist. She is founder and music director of the First Coast Flute Choir and performs with the St. Augustine Orchestra. Ms. Muller is a graduate of the University of Northern Colorado (BME 2004) and the University of Denver (MM 2009). Formerly an Army musician (101st COARNG), principal of the First Coast Wind Symphony, and flutist for A Classic Theatre and First Coast Opera, Angela is excited to perform at the Limelight Theatre for this season's production of Nunsense.

Jenn Michael

Jenn comes to us by way of New York City, where she graduated from the Fashion Institute of Technology. She got her start in the industry when an internship at Saturday Night Live turned into her dream job of working in their costume department. She then went on to work in the industry as a costume designer, wardrobe stylist, and professional shopper for over 15 years. From the fast-paced halls of late-night comedy shows such as SNL, Late Night with Jimmy Fallon, and Late Night with Conan O'Brien, she has created the looks of many the beloved characters you welcomed into your living room each week. Jenn's experience also includes working the hallowed stages of the Metropolitan Opera and Broadway, dressing the catwalks of New York Fashion Week, and crafting on every child's favorite street: Sesame Street. She is thrilled to be teaming up with the Limelight Theatre once again, as she just recently costume designed Hairspray for them this summer. Nunsense gives her the opportunity to dress both actors AND a puppet, so this is right up her alley! When she's not designing, you can find her teaching art classes around St Augustine, thrifting, or living up to her most prestigious title of "Mom" to her two boys.

Day Stanchi

Day (Sound-board & Spot Operator/Assistant Lighting Designer) is a freshman at Florida School of the Arts at SJR State, and has been involved at the Limelight Theatre for seven years now. Most recently she has worked as stage manager and board-op for Six; stage manager and sound designer for Crimes of the Heart; stage manager, lighting designer, and props coordinator for Alice in Wonderland Jr; and props coordinator and lighting designer for Spamalot, Young@Part. She is very excited for the opportunity to work on Nunsense!

Crew

Daniel Starling

Daniel (Director) is so grateful to help bring this fun and hilarious show together. He has recently directed Murder on the Orient at ACT, Cry-Baby at OPCT, Young Frankenstein at Saltwater, and Bright Star at ABET. He was last on the Limelight stage as Harold in Fly by Night, alongside his beautiful wife. He's grateful to Sherrie for trusting he and Heather with bringing this show home, the cast and crew for making such a "difficult transition", to 15ML, Toot Bus, his incredibly talented wife and best friend, Heather, for doing literally everything when he couldn't be there, you and the 4 B's are literally his world, and of course to David and Don, who really did nearly all the work to make this show happen, for us to simply carry it over the finish line. Thank you both. It really is your show.

Heather Starling

Heather is tickled to be involved with this production at Limelight Theatre, and what better way to start than with a habit full of hilarity! She was last seen on the Limelight stage in Fly by Night and The Drowsy Chaperone. Stepping in just two weeks ago, Heather is grateful for this amazing cast and crew who have embraced her with open arms. She hopes you laugh as much watching Nunsense as she has while helping bring it to life!

Michael Takita

From Maui to California to France, and now to St. Augustine, Michael Takita's journey has always led back to the stage. A lifelong passion for theatre began in high school and followed him throughout his career, even while he served as the Director of Information Technology for a prominent CPA firm. Now a lighting designer for the Limelight Theatre, Michael is thrilled to be a part of the family.

His extensive lighting design credits include work with organizations like Maui Onstage and Tihati Productions, as well as Les Troubadours Britanniques de Limoux in France. He is also a proud co-founder of the Maui Academy of Performing Arts, which is celebrating its 50th anniversary. Michael recently returned from the Edinburgh Fringe Festival, where he ran sound and lights for Jason Woods Productions' of A Mad, Mad Wonderland and Bing. His lighting has illuminated several Limelight productions, including Independence, First Date, A Christmas Cabaret, Crimes of the Heart, The Drowsy Chaperone, Sense and Sensibility, Fly By Night, and Rhinoceros.

Crew

Ashley Taylor

Ashley Taylor (Set Designer & Production Manager) has been involved in local theatre for nearly two years with Limelight Theatre and A Classic Theater. Usually found behind the light board, she has also worked in sound, set painting, stagehand roles, and production management. For Nunsense, Ashley serves as Production Manager and debuts as Scenic Designer. By night, she helps bring stories to life; by day, she transforms lives as a Regional Manager and Marketing Specialist for Orangetheory Fitness.

Keith Teepen

Keith (Music Director) has performed both as a soloist and collaborative pianist in Europe, Asia, South America, and throughout North America. He is a multi-faceted musician having collaborated with a diverse spectrum of celebrated artists including: American operatic tenor, Bryan Hymel, trumpeter, Tine Thing Helseth, and Broadway stars, Laura Osnes and Donna Vivino. He has had the pleasure of music directing several productions, most recently including: The Last Five Years, If/Then, Cinderella, and Little Women. Other recent performances include shows with Laura Osnes, Avery Boettcher, a cabaret at 54 Below in New York City, as well as Rachmaninoff's Piano Concerto No. 2. Dr. Teepen received his Doctor of Musical Arts degree in Collaborative Piano at the University of Colorado Boulder and holds a Master of Music and Bachelor of Music in Piano Performance. He is currently working at Flagler College as the Tom Kenan Assistant Professor of Piano.

Sophie Willis

Sophie Willis (Stage Manager) is very excited to be back at the Limelight Theatre, stage managing Nunsense! Sophie made their Limelight debut stage as assistant stage manager for Parade in 2022, and has continued working on both mainstage productions and with the Education Department at Limelight ever since! Some of Sophie's past stage management credits also include The Revolutionists at Players by the Sea, and Something Rotten! at Florida School of the Arts, where they're pursuing their degree in stage management and theatre technology. Sophie would like to thank the directors, production team, and the Little Sisters of Hoboken for this wonderful experience!
