A NOTE FROM THE DIRECTORS

What makes a family? Is it the people who share our name, the ones who know all our secrets, or the ones who love us even when we're at our craziest? In The Addams Family, the answer is a little bit of everything…and perhaps a few things best left unexplained.

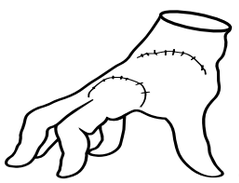

At its heart, this show is about what happens when the world we know collides with the world we don't. It's about growing up, letting go, falling in love, and discovering that the people who seem the most different from us might not be so different after all. And, of course, it reminds us that a little weirdness is nothing to be afraid of.

Bringing this wonderfully creepy, kooky, and altogether ooky family to life has been a labor of love. Theater is always a collaboration, and getting to share the directing journey has made this experience especially meaningful. We are so grateful to the cast, crew, volunteers, and everyone behind the scenes who poured their creativity, time, and heart into this production. You have made this strange little world feel very much alive.

And to our audience: thank you for spending an evening with us. We hope you laugh a little, fall in love a little, and leave remembering that there is no such thing as a normal family…just families that love each other in their own wonderfully peculiar ways.

So sit back, embrace the darkness, and remember: when you're an Addams, the standard answers don't apply.

With love and a little mischief,
Heather and Shea

CAST BIOS

Amy Baker (Saloon Girl Ancestor)

A South Georgia native and UGA alum, Amy Baker is incredibly excited for this production of The Addams Family Musical! Amy's most recent roles at ACT include Lady Caroline Bramble (Enchanted April), Jo (Lend Me a Soprano), and Lucy Seward (Dracula). Amy would like to dedicate her performance to the loving memory of Noah Scott Horton.

Zain Beverly (Chef Ancestor)

Zain has a Bachelor's degree in Communications from UNF and works as a trivia host. His favorite character lyric is, "Dead for forever." "It really sets the scene," he says. This is Zain's first show at ACT and he is so glad to be a part of this production! He has loved getting to work under such a committed and talented directorial team. His hobbies include playing guitar around town and map-staring. He would like to give a shout out to his family, especially his mom, as well as his roommates who put up with him (Adeline and Colby).

Adeline Bishop (Marie Antoinette Ancestor)

The Addams Family Musical is Adeline's first show at ACT and she is very excited to be a part of it. Outside of the theater, you can find Adeline at the thrift store, at karaoke, or visiting her Gran Gran. She is very thankful to her fiancé and friends for encouraging her to audition.

Ren Burroughs (Princess Ancestor)

Ren is a hairstylist who graduated from Douglas Anderson in 2022 as a theater student. When Ren isn't spending her free time on stage rehearsing, you can probably find her reading. This production has allowed her to dance again–something she hasn't been able to do in a very long time. Her favorite lyrics in this musical are "He loves that moon!" from 'Full Disclosure.' Ren gives special thanks to her mom for "always having snacks ready for me when I come home after rehearsal and putting up with me singing random parts from the show around our house for the last few months." This is Ren's ACT debut and her first musical performance in eight years!

Rae Colley (Flapper Ancestor)

Rae is thrilled to be back on the ACT Main Stage, where some past favorite roles include Mrs. MacAfee (Bye Bye Birdie), Dora Bailey (Singin' in the Rain) and Celeste (Into the Breeches!). Her favorite part of the show is the amazing cast and crew and how the Ancestors aren't just a gaggle of ghosts—each has their own character and backstory. Rae thanks her husband Will and their children, Jackson, Grace, Carlton, and Belle, for supporting her dreams. She has a Ph.D. in English, works in marketing, and enjoys tennis, reading, and watching University of Georgia football. Rae will be playing Emilie Ducotel in ACT's My Three Angels coming in December.

SELF STORAGE

Melissa Coon (Flight Attendant Ancestor)

Melissa is back on stage as an ensemble ancestor after her debut to the ACT stage in Bye Bye Birdie and as Vera Claythorne in And Then There Were None. What she loves most about this production is the ghoulish, white costuming for the ancestors, working with a two-story set for the first time, and the inspirational and hardworking cast who are such a blessing! She gives all glory, honor, and worship to Jesus Christ. Special mention: "My twin sissy, Lin! She's our stage manager, who's really made a home here with the theater! If only she had gotten involved sooner! My husband is 10/10, S+ tier, uber-talented Anthony Rodriguez who's covered many roles working backstage at ACT for the last year; we've been married 9¼ years and still happily going strong— hopefully for forever and after!"

Rosalin Davis (Ship Captain Ancestor)

Rosalin is currently in high school and working at Chick-fil-A. She considers herself an "extreme dancer" and loves psychology. Her favorite line from the show is "They're not right for each other–who's to say!" What Rosalin loves most about being involved with this production is being "Dance Captain" and dancing her heart out. She gives special thanks to her mom for always helping her, especially backstage and cleaning-up, and her two four-legged furry pups!

Doug Gluntz (Pirate Ancestor)

Douglas Gluntz is husband to one and dad of ten, or dad often, whichever you prefer. During the day he is a Director of Network Engineering for a major Internet Service Provider. He loves singing in the choir at Amelia Baptist Church and enjoying time with his wife and children. He is really thankful for his wife, Cathy, who not only puts up with his drama at home, but allows him to pursue his passion for acting. This is his fourth show at ACT in three years. He appeared in Agatha Christie's Mousetrap, Singin' in the Rain, and Bye Bye Birdie. He is also thankful to his children who support his love for theater and are his biggest fans.

Jennifer Jaress (Bride Ancestor)

Jennifer is excited to be a part of another ACT production. She has been a part of various theatre communities for over 30 years. This is her 7th production here at ACT and is thrilled to be back onstage alongside an incredibly talented cast and crew. Big shout out to her husband and daughters for their continued love and support.

Karina Jimenez (Wednesday Addams)

Despite Wednesday's gloomy demeanor, Karina is utterly enthused to be back on the ACT stage. She grew up in the ACT community, taking part in many summer camps and mainstage productions. Most recently, she assistant directed ACT's previous musical, Bye Bye Birdie. She is incredibly grateful to her family and friends for their endless support. Karina hopes you enjoy the show and promises not to actually use the crossbow.

Marley Little (80's Diva Ancestor)

Marley is a high school senior and actually quit her job to be in this production! Her hobbies and interests include singing and reading. What she loves most about being involved in this musical is being on stage with her favorite people! Her favorite line from the show is: "You do what Addams do or die!" She gives a special shout-out to Amelia Underwood for "helping me keep my head up," and her Uncle Parker for being her #1! Marley would like to openly share with everyone that she is going to pursue theater in college! We look forward to what her future has in store for her.

Sophia Rose Loveday (Alice Beinecke)

Sophia has been "Waiting" to make her debut at ACT. Other local credits include: Pocahontas/Badroulbadour in Disenchanted (ABET), Fiona in Shrek (SPA), Janet in Drowsy Chaperone (Saint Simons), Rosie in Bye Bye Birdie (Ponte Vedra), Franca in Light in the Piazza (Theatre Jax), Audrey in Little Shop of Horrors (SMLT), Lisa in South Pacific (Alhambra), Maria in Sound of Music (AMP). Memorable roles: Doralee in 9 to 5, Jo in Little Women, Sarah in Guys and Dolls, Peggy in 42nd Street, Carrie in Carousel. Sophia would like to thank her family for giving her "One Normal Night"!

Emme Lucas (Pugsley Addams)

Emme is a 12-year-old 7th-grade homeschool student who loves theater, beading, and her miniature Labradoodle, Sandy—yes, just like the dog in Little Orphan Annie. "I'm obsessed with her," Emme says. "We have matching outfits, because obviously! Sandy and I take our fashion very seriously." She is thrilled to play Pugsley in such a wonderfully weird family, as they have a few things in common: they both love their families, make people laugh, and occasionally find themselves getting into trouble. Emme has been part of the ACT family for five years and can't imagine life without theater. She would like to give a big "thank you" to her mom and dad for "all the things," and to Mrs. Shea Zaccaro for helping her find her voice. She hopes you enjoy the show—and if something explodes, it probably wasn't her fault!

Geoffrey Moss (Uncle Fester)

Geoffrey states, "I knew nothing about this show (Other than every other Addams Family media) before I auditioned for it. As soon as I read the script, I loved all of it and this cast rocks!" Geoffrey's education and job credentials include Douglas Anderson School of the Arts, Technical Director (2015-2018), ACT, Technical Director (2019-2025), and Memorial United Methodist Church, Director of A/V and Video Production (2019-Present). His favorite character lines are, "Fester's got the ball! He's running! He's dodging! Look at that sumbitch go!" He adds, "It's such a ridiculous line I almost crack up saying it every time!" Lastly, he gives special thanks to his wife, Sarah, for allowing him to come out of production retirement…and for not leaving him for shaving his head… That was a joke people… Lighten up!

Bob O'Hara (Lurch)

A retired teacher, engineer, and business owner, Bob makes his ACT debut as Lurch in The Addams Family Musical. He began his musical theater journey at 62 and has appeared in 65 productions across Florida and Georgia. Recent roles include Nick/Doug in Come From Away. Other favorites include Warbucks (Annie), Nostradamus (Something Rotten!), Mushnik (Little Shop of Horrors), Maraczek (She Loves Me), J.B. Biggley (How to Succeed in Business…), and Grandpa Joe (Charlie and the Chocolate Factory). Bob thanks his wife, Sherrie, his biggest cheerleader. He's thrilled to work with old friends, make new ones, and experience a new theater! IG: @mr_brohara

Ava Old (Ballerina Ancestor)

Ava is a full-time homeschooler, actress, and dance enthusiast. Her hobbies include collecting vinyls, drawing, and dancing. What she loves most about being involved with this production is the cast and crew; "they're all so supportive and talented!" Her favorite dance number she performs in is "Tango de Amor." A special ovation goes out to her mom who she thanks for "carting me around and always supporting me." The Addams Family Musical is Ava's 16th show in a little over a year and her first show with ACT.

Anthony Rodriguez (Lucas Beinecke)

Anthony is an actor and voiceover director in voiceover for videogames, film, and television. He's excited to be singing on stage under the fantastic direction of both Heather and Shea as well as with this amazing cast! Thanks to my wife, parents, God, and everyone else. Special shoutout to everyone at St. Justin the Martyr Orthodox Church.

Trey Stafford (Founding Father Ancestor)

Trey is a professor of information technology at FSCJ and has his Doctorate of Ministry. He recently got married to his beautiful wife, Bethany. Outside of acting, his hobbies include traveling, reading, and writing. Although he doesn't have a favorite line from the show, he loves playing the role of Death ("Just Around the Corner"). "I have truly loved working with this incredible cast and set of directors," he exclaims.

Judy Tipton (Grandma Addams)

Judy has a Master's in Theater from Oklahoma and retired from being a theater teacher after 38 years! Her favorite line from the show is "Stop your texting and pick up a book once in a while." What she loves the most about being in this production is the music, choreography, and wonderfully talented cast. She would like to give a special shoutout to Jim Tipton, her spouse of 56 years, who is the owner of Pelicans Palm Retail center. He is a retired art teacher, potter, and general handyman. She would also like to thank Jim for building Grandma's potion cart and the cast for helping her through the knee surgery. Jayme Taylor is her older daughter who has the theater in her blood. She loves to walk the beach and travel, as well as designing and creating costumes. Keep an eye out for Judy: she will be directing Oklahoma! in the spring!

Haley Vonnoh (Morticia Addams)

By day, Haley is a math teacher at FBHS and Director of the Pirate Players. She holds a B.S. degree in Secondary Mathematics Education and an M.S. in Mathematics from North Carolina State University. When she's not teaching or performing, she enjoys reading, traveling, and being outdoors. Haley's favorite line is, "Normal is an illusion, darling," because she says, "Frankly, Morticia has always understood that being normal is terribly overrated." She states, "I've loved being part of this production and watching a wonderfully talented cast bring this delightfully peculiar family to life." When told she had to write a short bio for the program she remarked, "How delightfully dreadful."

Craig Wickless (Mal Beinecke)

Craig is the Store Manager of the Yulee Family Dollar. He loves escape rooms, frisbee throwing, and trivia nights! His favorite character line is, "Lucas, help your mother off the table." What he loves the most about being involved with The Addams Family Musical is being around such talented and wonderful castmates. He would like to give an ovation to Heather Starling and Shae Zaccaro for trusting him with this role. Additionally, a huge "thank you" to Doug, Tom, Shannon, and the tripod for their love and support. Also, ladies, he's single!

Joe Zaccaro (Gomez Addams)

Joe is thrilled to return to the ACT stage, where he has appeared as Mr. Laurence in Little Women the Musical, Hercule Poirot in Murder on the Orient Express and Dad in Billy Elliott the Musical. Drawn back to acting after a hiatus of over twenty years, he had previously performed at Connecticut Repertory Theatre, where some of his favorite roles were Bernard in Arcadia, Claudius in Hamlet, The Chairman in The Mystery of Edwin Drood and Marc in Art. Currently President of the Board of Directors for ACT, he is continually amazed to see what gets accomplished everyday by the dedicated volunteers that make our theatre possible.

PRODUCTION STAFF BIOS

Sophia Rose Loveday (Choreographer)

Sophia is honored to get "Pulled" in the right direction doing the choreography for this production of The Addams Family Musical. Local Direction / Choreography credits: Little Women, Sound of Music, Spelling Bee, Peter Pan, Secret Garden and Musical of Musicals. Choreography credits: You're a Good Man Charlie Brown, The Producers, My Fair Lady and Matilda (which won Outstanding Performance of Choreography at Southeastern Theatre Conference). "Move Toward the Darkness" with Sophia as she takes the stage next in The Producers at Arts Collective Theatre! Sophia is grateful for her family and all their support—especially when she's "Crazier Than You"!

Lindsay Marie (Stage Manager)

Lindsay is a Radiology Technology Student at UF Health Jax and is expected to graduate December 4, 2026. She is thrilled that she gets to be a part of The Addams Family Musical. She tasted theater for the first time at ACT—stage managing and being Vera's understudy for And Then There Were None. The cast and crew are amazing and endlessly talented, and she is honored to share time, space, and the stage with everyone involved. In her off time she enjoys dancing, especially Zumba, hiking, and listening to music. Special thanks to Jayme, Shea, Heather, Vicki, and Missy for entrusting her in her respective role and making her feel like part of the ACT family! She hopes to be acting on stage one of these days. Keep a look-out everyone!

Heather Starling (Director, Choreographer)

Heather is positively delighted to bring this creepy, kooky, mysterious, and altogether ooky musical to the ACT stage. Previously at ACT, she directed Little Women and performed in 9 to 5, The Musical and First Date. Heather truly hit the jackpot with this wonderfully twisted and talented cast and crew, and wouldn't trade this spooky little adventure for anything. My friend and collaborator Shea - THANK YOU!! Sophia, Lindsey, and Vicki - I adore this team and what we create together! To Daniel, thank you for your love and unwavering support throughout this process. Your impact is greater than you know. All my love to my four Bs.

Shea Zaccaro (Director, Music Director)

Shea is a music teacher and theater educator who holds a BFA in Musical Theatre from the University of Florida and MFA in Acting from the University of Connecticut. She has been teaching piano and voice for over 25 years, and previously taught adjunct at UConn and Eastern Connecticut State University. A member of the ACT Board of Directors, Shea also chairs ACTed, the education committee at ACT, and produces theatrical summer camp productions for kids and teens. Last season, she directed ACT's production of Bye Bye Birdie! and was music director for Little Women.

ACT MAUREEN MELUGIN VOLUNTEER OF THE YEAR, 2026-27

VICKI GIBSON

Our Volunteer of the Year for ACT's 45th season is a dedicated, approachable and proficient woman who is liked by everyone. Her creativity and enthusiasm shine in every task she manages.

Join us in celebrating Vicki Gibson and her outstanding contributions at ACT! As a costumer and dresser, Vicki plans, fits and maintains the clothing and accessories worn by the actors on stage. She helps to portray realistic characters through the clever and creative use of costumes that exhibit a variety of time periods and match directors' artistic visions, making every ACT production visually appealing. One endearing activity she enthusiastically coordinates is her group of backstage cheerleaders/costumers wearing fun props in the green room, cheering actors at the end of each show as they come off stage.

From the moment Vicki started volunteering with ACT, and especially in the 45th season, she has spent countless hours finding the perfect costume pieces for multiple shows, while continuously organizing and cleaning our vast costume inventory. During the run of the show, she ensures each performance is staffed with volunteers to help with quick backstage changes and any costume repairs that might arise. In addition, Vicki has been instrumental in recruiting new volunteers, encouraging and training them until they feel comfortable with their tasks.

This season, Vicki also served on the ACT Play Reading Committee. She contributed her volunteer expertise to help determine the impact a particular play would have on our costume crew and resources. Vicki was a valuable member of the committee, reading numerous selections, taking her reviews seriously, offering suggestions for new shows, and providing perspectives from the many years she has spent with her theatrical grandchildren.

She also volunteered with the ACTed summer camp shows, front of house activities, work days and fundraising events. It's possible you haven't seen Vicki do all this work because she is usually in the kitchen cleaning up!

Thank you, Vicki, for your commitment to ACT and being named our Volunteer of the Year!

There's so much in store for ACT's 46th Season!
